June Blatt "1952"

June:

All I can say is that I have never met a nicer friend in all the places I've been. Please always stay as sweet and good as you are now and I know everybody will love you.

Love YH.

Best of Luck to a very sweet and cute girl. May you have all the happiness
you desire Forever
Sincerely
Pat Moore

June -
It's been nice knowing you you are a very nice girl very sweet and cute may the best of everything come to you. Love ya!
Pat Moore

June 1
I can't think of much to say but I'll try. I hope you have had a good time as being my friend.
I think you are the cutest girl I have ever seen, and I just love to hear you talk. If you are a good little girl you won't skip school anymore. Because some one will surely see you. Before I met you and Jerry I had to go to school by myself but I thought he was a goodtime then. Don't tell Jerry. He look like a sad sack with his head in a puddle of water. I hope you have a lot of luck & happens.
I had ever seen. I hope you have a lot of luck & happens.

Love you Always Hittley

P. S.
Don't get too old at the age of 60.

Best of luck is always to a sweet girl - Emma

Best wishes to a very fine girl. Lots of luck and success.
Love always,
Katharine Coffey.

June,
you are a cute and sweet little girl!
Stay that way.

FOREWORD

People like to leave their marks. Sculptors chisel their signatures in their works; musicians sprawl their names across their compositions; young lovers carve their initials on trees and school desks. People also like to record their activities. Thus we have the sailors' logs, correspondents' diaries, and travelers' post cards. Having these same desires, the Senior Class of 1952 puts together the yearbook, the ACORN, as a means of leaving its mark and records.

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1952, dedicate the ACORN to MISS EMILY CARR, whose recipe for us has been never-ending service, patient understanding, and ready consideration. Her personal interest in our welfare and her marked success as a class adviser have done much to determine the course of our last year, the happiest and fullest of a good school career.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We are architects building in these walls of time. Each impression we make, whether great or small, will someday reflect itself in our accomplishments.

Under the leadership of Ann Graham and Wallace Ford we cautiously and sometimes shyly laid our plans for what we hoped would be a masterpiece which could be in some way compared with that of the senior class which directed the progress of Harding the year we entered, 1947.

With Jimmy Kiser leading us during the first semester of our second year at Harding, we continued to make plans for our foundation. Wondering when our plans would be put to work, we elected Wallace Ford to take up the task of supervision; and in April our memorable foundation was laid—we inaugurated the first Junior Junior-Senior which, with tremendous success, caused the eyes of all the school to turn on us, the architects of '52—that year which was long awaited but which has arrived all too soon.

The ninth grade proved to be an eventful year. All of us in various ways helped to swing the brooms with William Hoover and Jimmy Hartness piloting us through our last year in Junior High School. The Junior Honor Society, under the leadership of Wallace Ford, came out with a bang—selling forget-me-nots and entertaining the Junior High Football Team at a wiener roast. There was no lack of entertainment, for an active Junior High Dance Committee was formed with Sue Davis as chairman.

Our sophomore year, our activities were confined more or less to work within our own class. Unfortunately we had no school paper that year, but with Jimmy Kiser and Virginia Stratton as class presidents, we had our first class party and held dancing classes, which we hoped would prepare us for the Junior-Senior.

Filled with much excitement, we began our Junior year under the guidance of Virginia Stratton for the first semester and Jimmy Kiser the second. As the second semester progressed, our thoughts were centered around plans for one of our most long awaited events—our Junior-Senior! On May 9, at the Hotel Charlotte, we, the class of '52, presented what we believed was the best Junior-Senior ever. (By the way, we were the first to have it at the Hotel Charlotte.) To add more excitement to our year, we enthusiastically made our first down payments for our class rings. Then on Maroon and Gold Day seven of us juniors were selected to serve as Imperatores.

The last details prove to be the success or failure of work no matter how slowly and carefully the progress has been or how much thought and time have been put into the work. Our last year was the "final touch"—the truly significant task. There were those architects, just beginning, whose plans were influenced by our "finished products" just as ours had been when we began our building.

Patsy White, president, with Billy Morris, vice-president, Mary Ellen Beam, secretary, and Betty Pace, treasurer, led us through one part of our never-to-be-forgotten year—our senior year. Our "mighty Rams" with Bobby Jackson and Jimmy Wood as Co-Captains roared into one of their mightiest seasons, and Harding placed five players on the All-City squad. Touches of beauty were added by Shirley Gardner, senior attendant in the court of Sue Davis, Gridiron Queen at Homecoming, which began with one of the best parades our school has known, progressed through a victorious game against the Gastonia "Green Wave," and ended with an open house given by the Varsity Club. Joan Wilson twice donned the title of Miss Harding, once for Homecoming and again for the Carrousel.

It was not until we began taking senior pictures, electing superlatives, and making plans for Class Day that we could truly realize this was our last year at Harding. Soon we would be parting from the school that we had learned to love to follow life's different roads to build our future.

Our last days at Harding have been busy yet happy ones. First came the Junior-Senior, followed a short time later by Class Night. Baccalaureate, and then Commencement, the biggest day of our lives.

And this ends the architectural work of the class of '52. We as a class have completed our task, but as individuals we will go out into the world as mere beginners, attempting to build our futures.

PROPHECY FOR THE CLASS OF 1952

In my extensive travels as a bum—er—I mean adventurer, I have been around the world twice—seen much, heard much, and experienced much. My last trip took me to the exotic land of India. There I had what I will forever recall as one of my most memorable experiences. I, by chance, met an old Indian fakir. He, for some rupees, sifted back the grains of sand in his Magic Hour Glass, to look into the lives of some of my former classmates at Harding High.

As sports was my favorite subject, I asked if we might let the grains of sports be the first to fall.

Four boys were fortunate enough to be associated with that powerhouse of pro-football, the "Skins"; not the "Washington Redskins," but the "Greenbay Grape Skins." They were: Tommy Long, guard; Bill Russell, tackle; Bobby Jackson, end, and Kenneth Whitley, ace water boy.

From the football world, we went to baseball. It seemed baseball too took its toll. For Wallace Ford, Lacy Holden, Bobby Elms and Bill Morris are playing for the "New York Dwarfs." The team is managed by none other than Jimmy "Runt" Kiser.

Miss Marjorie Lotshaw recently defeated Joy Walden, Matilda Dunlap, and Patsy Godfrey in an elimination match for the Women's World Championship of Wrestling.

We even had some daredevils in our class, for the name Jerry Davis and His Auto Maniac can be seen wherever the thrill-seeker might look. With Jerry are some of his old cronies—Bobby James, Jimmy Thompson, Donnie Smith, Bobby Carter, Bobby Jones, Temp Neely, Tommy Tucker, Jimmy Deese, and the first girl stunt drivers ever to perform—Gladys Braley, Jean Moss, Betty Jean Oliver, Shirley Moore, Dot Beaty, Joyce Chapman, Mary Black, and Pattie (completely demolish-'em) Helms. Archie Parker and John Wiedeman keep the cars rolling.

From the sports we went to show business—that broke the Hour Glass. After we fixed the Glass, I knew what had broken it, for there were no ends to our talents.

That new storm of TV, the "Charlie Hour," is the talk of the nation. It stars all Charlies. It is written by Charles Mills, produced by Charles Thacker, songs by Charles Darnell, music by Charles Hillon, jokes by Charles Boyd and smiles by Charles Roberts.

We people at Harding never no anything half-way, and our class was no exception. We even took the movies by storm. Sue Davis is the latest news. She just divorced her thirty-first husband to break all existing records. Sue is not by herself in Hollywood, because Peggy Wilhelm, Ken Woodis, Bill Erwin, and Jahala Eudy keep her company, along with that new comedy team, Merritt and Hoover, and the dance sensationals, McCorkle and Lewis. Their latest pictures may be seen at the Harris, Charlotte's leading theater, owned by none other than Ed Harris. Ed's head usher is Bill Nixon.

Kids today no longer look up to Hopalong Cassidy, but to "Duke" Dixon and his singing Range-Rats. The rats are "Two-Gun" McIver, "Tex" Turner, "Hip-Shot" Hicks, "Will-Bill" Shaw, "Pistol-Packin'" Poole, "Chew-'em-up" Chambers, "Rip" Randall, and "Bent-Barrel" Bickett.

It is said, "Music hath charms to soothe the savage beast," but the music you hear when Dale Cornelius and his "Tore Out Ten Plus Two" tune up makes a beast out of the most soothed of men. Dale's 5/6 of a dozen plus two consist of Gene Lynn, Delores Baxter, Mary Ellen Beam, David Helms, Ann Gallant, Kenneth Jackson, Bill Robertson, Bill Sherrill, and poor Ann Scruggs, still playing Second Fiddle. Dale's vocalist, Barbara Putnam, is said to sport a strong pair of lungs. She has to in order to sing over that noise.

With all the coming and going of our former classmates, it is only natural that some visit their rich uncle, ole Uncle Sam. Quite a few of our friends are still with him. In the Navy, there were two new demotions. The Admiral, Jack Nunn, just demoted Bernie Meacham and Dwioht Hartley to the rank of seaman first class. When the boys went in the Navy, Jack started at the bottom and worked up; Bernie and Dwight started at the top and worked down.

As I said before, the class of '52 never did anything half-way, for some of our most studious students entered the field of medicine. Their more recent butchery was the removal of Stanley Ofsonka's acute hangnail of the right hand. This serious operation was performed by Dr. Pat Price, under the consultance of that famous surgeon, Dr. Ronny Raylor. Assisting in the operation were Barbara Nivens, Betty Patat, Harriet Austin, Jane Little, Mickey Cope, Kanala Maydanis, Millie Traywick, and chief bottle washer, Al Fennell. Al's little bottle washers are Ann Graham, Joan Drye, Nancy Foster, Dorothy McGrath, and Peggy Jones.

The grains of fashion were the next to fall. In the fashion field, we find some of the better looking male and female personalities. Patsy White's name may be seen on the labels of the latest women's wear. In the men's wear, the labels read, Norris Propes. In their garments we have the land's top models—male and female—such as Barbara Harrison, Betty Pace, Myrtle Brown, Shirley Gardner, Carolyn Gono, Ann Bullard, Jewel Buff, Max Davis, Gene Chapman, Bobby Henderson, Buddy Wilson, and Robert Rivenbark.

A new Detective Agency just opened in Charlotte, the "Private-Eye-Ear-Nose and Head." Private Eye, Mason Langston; Private Ear, David Collins; Private Nose, Dick Belton, and Private Head, Paul Drum (he does the brain work). Their latest case is the disappearance of Mrs. Philip Alexander's diamond tea arrow. When last seen it was shot at Jimmy Hinson by Bobby Mills in Mrs. Alexander's diamond Tea Bow, at a tea in the home of Miss Virginia Stratton, wealthy spinster. Jimmy and Bobby are being held for trial by Chief of Police C. P. Hipp. The honorable Judge Patsy Washam will preside at the trial. The lawyer for the defense is Paul Bowers; Prosecuting Attorney, Raymond Alexander.

Out of our class of over 200, one boy has really gone up in the world. Yes, little Richard Coleman is a professional flag pole sitter.

The Reverend James Brown just left on a missionary journey to Lower Slobovia. With him are Roddy Hodge, Katherine McKinney, Barbara Campbell, Barbara Scott, and Betty Teague. Gentlemen, please, four girls.

The fakir quit his sifting with Paul Coppala, the great animal trainer, trying to figure out the mysterious wild boy, recently captured by the renowned explorers—Gene Crow, Herbert Harper, Bill Pegram, and Jimmy Thackston. It is rumored that the boy is Joan Wilson Price's thirteenth son, who turned bush boy.

As I left the fakir, I thought—I must know this man: those blank eyes, that loose jaw, and he knows our class so well—but wait a minute. Yes, I did know him; here was my long lost friend, Bill Melton.

Regretfully submitted,

JIMMY WOOD, Prophet

A 6x7 grid of 42 black and white student portraits. The portraits are arranged in six rows and seven columns. Many of the portraits have handwritten names or initials written over them in various colors (blue, green, pink, black). The students are dressed in formal attire typical of the mid-20th century, including suits, ties, and dresses. The handwriting is cursive and appears to be done by hand.

ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL '51

The football fortunes of the 1951 Rams can be recorded as good. Playing a sometimes taxing, sometimes easy schedule, the Rams emerged with a record of 7 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie.

In four of these wins the opposition failed to cross the Ram's goal. Harding fell to four good class AAA teams—Fayetteville, Rock Hill, Greenville Parker, and Central; the lone tie came against another AAA team, Goldsboro.

Almost as good as the season was the spirit of this year's team. No boy dropped off the roster during the entire season.

The '51 team was certainly not without good players. Bobby Jackson, Jimmy Wood, Tommy Long, Charlie Roberts, and Billy Morris made the all-city teams selected by the News and the Observer. Jackson, one of Harding's all-time "greats," was likewise selected on the Shrine Bowl and the Charlotte News' all-state team. Charlotte's leading scorer, Billy Morris, also wore Harding pads.

Their own teammates voted honors to certain players at the end of the season. These awards, presented at the football banquet, were: Most Valuable Player, Bobby Jackson; Best Back, Billy Morris; Best Lineman, Bill Russell; Most Improved Player, H. R. Cunningham; and Best Blocker and Tackler, Tommy Long.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Packing up our moth-eaten notebooks, chewing one last wad of bubble gum, charging through the stuffy halls, and, at last, reaching the outside where we can revive ourselves in the soothing breeze from Irwin Creek, we, the graduating class of 1952, bring you this, our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the principals.

1. We, the class of the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, wish to express to both Mr. Hawkins and Mrs. Mackey our deepest appreciation for their guidance during our stay at Harding.

2. We also wish, now that we are beginning our lives in the outside world, that we can make them proud of each of us.

ARTICLE II

1. To Miss Carr, Mrs. Stewart, Miss Johnson, and Mrs. Shore, our home room teachers, we give our hopes for future home rooms. May they never forget us. We shall pray for them each time there is an assembly. We trust that they will be able to live through such ordeals for many years to come.

2. We leave to Miss Batten in our hearts a place which nothing can ever fill. We thank her for the many years that she has patiently led us in our student government activities.

3. To Coaches Faulkner, Jennings, Bumgarner, and Harris, go our thanks for our great athletic program.

4. To Miss Bell we are indebted for the return of school spirit.

5. Mrs. Sawyer deserves more than she has received from us in these past years; so we now say that we could never have done without your help.

6. We are very grateful to Miss Hinson for the annual, our last tangible school article.

7. Mr. Cook, Mr. Serins, and Mrs. Stewart receive our gratitude for all their hard work and tough problems in producing our excellent bands, orchestras, and choirs.

8. We leave to Miss Hartness and Miss Fore a bouquet of red roses, which may compensate for our research themes.

9. We send a thank you note to all other teachers who have taught us. We only hope that we can remember half you have tried to teach us.

ARTICLE III

To the rising seniors.

1. We leave you with the advice that it will be to your great advantage to apply yourself at learning your lessons.

2. To you we are entrusting our home for the past six years. Use all its facilities and conveniences; however, work always for a better school.

3. We give one last little piece of advice. Prepare yourself well for your future life. No one knows what may happen.

ARTICLE IV

To the individuals.

I, Phil Alexander, leave my three-year term in Miss Hartness' English eleven class to Jimmy Dingler with the hope that he may use it to utmost advantage.

I, Harriet Austin, do hereby will my undying love for geometry to Shirley Cobb.

I, Delores "Nookie" Baxter, will to any unsuspecting rising senior, who can balance money, my job as head of subscriptions for the annual.

I, Mary Ellen Beam, will to Janice Baker my proficiency in athletics. Hope she passes gym.

To any poor seventh grader who has the energy, I, Glenda Blackley, give my gym record of six full years.

I, Jeanetta Bogan, do hereby will my good fortune to go with brothers to anyone who can survive the test.

I, Betty Bowers, since I am a speedway star, will my capacity to retain my temper in driving class to the Green Hornet.

I, Charles Boyd, do hereby will my pass catching ability and prowess on a football field to Charles Long. Use it well; it will not last forever.

I, Betty Brooks, will my troubles in English to Jimmy Dingler. More power to you.

I, Deac. Brown, leave Miss MacKorell to play cupid to future Bible Club presidents.

I, Myrtle Brown, leave my love for basketball to Nancy Hoke.

I, Ann Bullard, will my place as the "Spoiled Brat" of Miss Carr's home room to any girl or boy in the present seventh grade who can qualify.

We, Paul Bowers, Esq., Paul Coppola, Esq., and Paul Drum, Esq., being of feeble mind and body, do will our record of three years together under Miss Watson to any naive peasant who may be deserving of this fate. Respectively, Pauls Bowers, Coppola, and Drum.

I, Barbara Campbell, will my love for sailors to my brother, Robert, because he will probably be one.

I, Gene Chapman, will my ability to get in trouble with and still keep in the good graces of my teachers to any foolish junior who has nerves strong enough to take the strain.

I, Joyce Chapman, will my faithfulness to an air force boy to anyone who is able to endure.

I, Dale Cornelius, being a Junior-sized Hercules, leave my athletic record for Johnny Puckett to work on.

I, Gene Crow, will my long legs to anyone who can use them.

I, Helen Criscoe (Sykes), will my love for my husband to anyone who can find one as wonderful as he.

We, Susie Christenbury, "Brooksie," Frances Treadway, Dot McNeely, and Louise Stegall, will our liking for the Thirty-first "Dixie Division" to any true Southerners and Confederates.

I, Joan Drye, leave my middle name "Byford," to some poor soul with one worse.

I, Jimmy Deese, hereby will my Texas boots to Phil Devaney.

I, Sue Davis, will my position as a Harding cheerleader to anyone who loves cheering as much as I did.

I, Jerry Dixon, will my title as laziest and talent at hillbilly to Bud Witherspoon, who has surpassed me in both departments.

I, Matilda Dunlap, will my little ole love for Technical boys to any gal who can take it.

Being of feeble frame and much worse body, I, Ray Deese, will my old English themes to any junior who wants to fail English.

I, Jerry Davis, will my spot for cleaning the gym floor to Donnic Cates.

We, Dot Beatty and Pat Taylor, will our tardies for Miss Johnson to those who will follow the tradition.

I, Bill Erwin, do hereby declare and ordain Lorraine Mitzel as my personal ambassador, extraordinary and plenipotentiary, to the geometry class of Miss Watson for the year 1952-1953.

I, Jahala Eudy, will my long eyelashes to Ann Myers, in the hope that she will profit more by them than I have.

We, Carolyn Abercrombie and Shirley Cloninger, do will our nerve in taking mechanical drawing to any girl who can draw a straight line.

I, Wally Ford, will my ability to get by being late to Miss Carr's home room to anyone lucky enough to get her.

We, Nancy Foster, Peggy Jones, and Ann Graham, will our intestinal fortitude to put up with each other for twelve years to any three who are patient.

I, Patsy Godfrey, leave my nightmares and worries while studying to all who think it worth the trouble.

I, Carolyn Gono, do hereby will my love for the name "Bo" to Shirley Cloud.

We, Mickey Cope and Bobby Henderson, having received nothing leave nothing.

I, Herbert Harper, leave my love for horses to anyone who has no horse-sense.

I, William Hoover, give my straight hair to Bobby Sigmon.

I, Lee Hicks, will my place as a senior class chaplain to Milton Allen.

I, Thelma Harrison, do hereby and thus will my "Fat Frame" to Carolyn Cathay, who can most certainly use it.

I, Jean Harkey, will my love for the boys at Hoskins and my giggles to Amy and Ruth Wyatt.

I, Dwight Hartley, holding the title, "All-Gym Period Three," do will same to Bobby Sigmon.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, C. P. Hipp, will an extra two weeks to anyone who has the thrill of writing a research theme.

I, Jo Ann Helms (wheeeee), will my nickname, "Cuddles," to any to whom it might apply.

I, Barbara Harrison, leave my title as biggest heartbreaker to Joyce Godfrey.

I, David Carroll Helms, leave my job of playing "Charge" at the football games to Jimmy (Q.) Wells. Don't get caught as I did.

I, Jimmy Hinson, will my title as most bashful to some shy junior.

We, Gladys Braley and Jean Moss, do hereby will our love for Mr. Ellis to anyone who can hit the brakes hard enough to throw him in the floor.

I, Kenneth Jackson, will my seat in band to David Allen.

I, Jimmy Kiser, entrust my most undeserved nickname, "Runt," to one who can qualify much better than I, Roy Ford.

I, Beverly Lindsey, will my love for Central's senior boys to my sister, Anne.

I, Tommy Long, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my front seat in Miss Hartness' English to Boogie Smith.

I, Irma Love, will my love for the air force to Pauline Jones.

I, Roberta Lail, will nothing; I'm taking Wallace with me.

I, Marjorie Lotshaw, will my love for sports to my little brother, Paul.

I, Mason Langston, a fugitive from Morganton, leave my tongue to be used only in study halls.

I, Peggy Lewis, give Joanne Shoupe my title as best dancer.

I, Richard McCorkle, give my title as best dancer to Marion Justice.

I, Shirley Moss, will, although she has an abundant supply, my giggles and love for boys to Jennie Lou Robertson.

I, Bill Melton, being all "tore lose" after a hectic senior year, would like to leave a little word of advice to the rising senior class. When one of your subject teacher tells a joke, laugh; when Miss Fore or Miss Hartness tells one, go mad.

I, Dorothy McGrath, will my position as President of the D.O. Club to anyone who would like to preside.

I, Kanela Maydanis, do hereby will my name to anyone who can pronounce it correctly on the first try.

I, Mary McGarity, will my height to Shirley Biggers, who needs such a commodity.

I, Shirley Morgan, in order to save all potato sacks, will my lunch bag to Elinor Drane.

I, William Merritt, leave to Jimmy Rowland the chewing gum that I stuck on Miss Hartness' desk.

I, Kathryn McKinney, will my office as vice-president of the Bible Club to my sister, Doris.

I, Millie McNeely, do hereby will my luck in getting married before I graduate to anyone in the eleventh grade who wishes to have this great pleasure.

I, Bobby Mills, will my research theme to any eleventh grader who is as dumb as I.

I, Bernie Meacham, will to some unsuspecting rising eighth grader my seat in Miss Carr's home room.

We, Jane Little and Ann Gallant, will our love for senior English in summer school and Central boys to any lucky soul who has them.

I, Barbara Nivens, will to Anna Smith my ability to get along with boys as I do with Charles.

I, Betty Jean Oliver, leave my naturally curly hair to Norma Dean Bumgardner.

I, Alice Overcash, hereby do will to any junior girl my nerve of working and going to school in her senior year.

I, Norris Propes, will my locker and its contents to Johnny Puckett; lose some weight and you can have my levies.

I, Betty Pace, will my faithful combination lock to "Goat" Collins, who loves antiques.

I, Barbara Parrott (Alexander), will my position as treasurer of the D.E. Club to anyone who is able to hold it down.

I, Allan Poole, will half my height to Marshall McElhaney.

I, Archie Parker, will my superlatives to my brother, Tommy.

I, Betty Patat, will Tommy Long to the junior class for safe-keeping.

I, Barbara Putnam, leave my love for singing to Joe Haas.

I, Pat Price, have so many things that I'd like to get rid of, but I can't find anyone I hate enough to leave them to.

We, Shirley Gardner and Veronica Ledwell, give our love for college men to any eleventh grader who wishes to date only on week ends.

I, Mary Lou Rohleder, will my luck in becoming engaged during my high school years to anyone who has the same luck.

I, Bill Russell, will my football uniform to Louis Farmer.

I, Charlie Roberts, will my horse laugh to H. R. Cunningham.

I, Louise Siegall, will my nickname, "Lucy," to Shirley Horne.

I, Hazel Smith, leave my beloved shorthand book and its homework to Mary Charles Steele.

I, Bill Sherrill, need everything I've got; so I'm going to take it with me.

I, Norma Stroupe, will my ability to get into the Senior Honor Society to anyone who can make it.

I, Barbara Scott, will to Betty Morris my fortune of getting on the good side of Mrs. Davis.

I, Anne Scruggs, will my concert chair in the orchestra to Nancy McWhirter.

I, Karen Scruggs, leave my fine lady bass voice in the senior choir to Betty Lou Barr, who, I am sure, will fill the position.

I, Billy Shaw, leave my talent at confusing a teacher to Lee Philips.

I, Virginia Stratton, will my ability to have a task every single morning during home room period to anyone with willing feet.

I, Betty Sitton, leave my friendship with Mrs. Sawyer for the past three years to Vivian Mullins.

I, Betty Teague, will my love for black framed glasses to any stylish gal in the school.

I, Ronny Taylor, will my ability to get along with Miss Yelvington to Richard Earnhardt.

I, Tommy Tucker, will my place at running errands to anyone with a car. Can you afford the gas?

I, Frances Treadway, will my title as most bashful senior to Audrey Fowler.

I, Jimmy Thackston, will my stool at the Varsity to the speed demon who gets there first during sixth lunch period.

I, Millie Traywick, will my extra double-joint to Betty Lou Barr.

I, Charles Thacker, will my ability at passing physics without understanding it to any guy who wants to take the trouble.

We, Barbara Scott, Barbara Campbell, Kathryn McKinney, and Norma Stroupe, will our table in the cafeteria to anyone who can have as much fun as we had.

I, Jimmy Wood, will my nickname, "Tiger," to Bud Witherspoon in hopes that he will live up to it more so than I.

I, Patsy Washam, do hereby will my naturally curly hair to one who needs it desperately—Elinor Drane.

I, Ken Woodis, hereby will my choir robe to some junior choir member. May he be happy under Mr. Cook.

I, Mack Whitley, being satiated and nauseated, do will my great basso voice to Joe Haas.

I, Joye Walden, will my love for the sailors to Sylvia Gregory.

I, Peggy Wilhelm, leave my superlative, friendliest, to Betty Lou Barr.

I, Patsy White, will my superlatives to my sister, Peggy.

We, Tommy Long and Bill Melton, leave our good friendship and jokes to Bud Witherspoon and Marion Justice hoping they will have as much fun as we did.

I, Betty Lou Cornett (Bishop), will my smooth complexion to Gwen Beach.

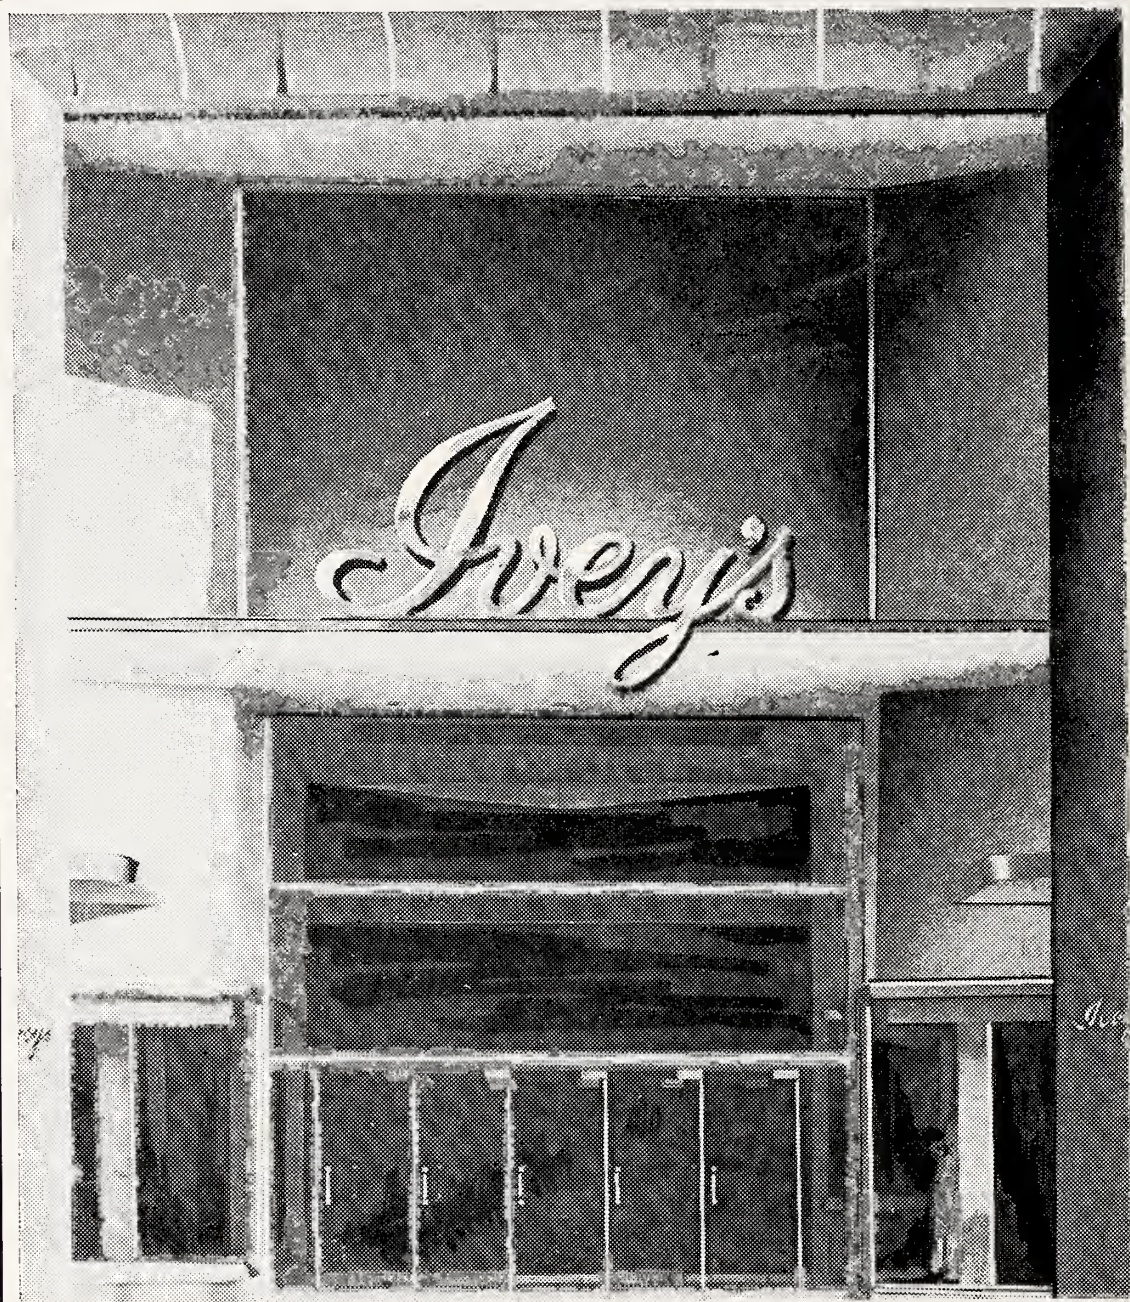

I, Bill Robertson, will my knack for getting kicked out of band to Eugene Hooper.

I, Joan Wilson, leave my position as editor of the ACORN to anyone who can type, file, run errands, get pictures from photographer on time, write copy, and then meet the publisher's deadline.

Telephone Girls

and some of the things they do

Telephone girls enjoy interesting and important jobs in a growing industry.

Operators using modern equipment provide world-wide communication. — Service Representatives handle customer contacts in our business offices. — Stenographers, Typists and Clerical workers perform important and specialized jobs in all departments.

If good pay—friendly associates—your own age—paid vacations—sickness benefits and frequently scheduled raises appeal to you—why not come in and talk with us about a position with the Telephone Company.

O. W. June,
before I thought I I hadn't come to Harding but I guess with our gang I have had more fun you will think I am mucky when I say I could have cried when you and Jerry came dragging those flowers up to the hospital. I don't think I was ever happier though I might not have shown it then. (I was too dopy)
In this past year I have come to think of you as a sister.
Oh yes, I can't leave out the wonderful parties you have given. Remember those games? Well you should cause I always will. ~~June~~ I don't know that I will be in Charlotte another year because I don't know that I will be in Charlotte
I finish. You know what? This is a very messy job! eh?!
I know I will enjoy this day with you. I am sorry for the trouble I caused you (hunting this pen & ink I mean) someday I hope I will be able to pay you back for the money and kindness you have given me. You with the help of Jerry and some others helped me not to be so damn bashful and I will never be able to forget the second party though. (That was at the first party) You know I mean. Well I might have so many boys taught me a lot too! and I do mean a lot. (The pictures I mean) So Love, Love, Love ever run out of ink but I sure am running out of words fast. So Love, Love, Love all that corn I mean.

June,

We have had loads of fun in school this year. We have had fun at Sweets also. Don't forget the parties you had and Jerry, "Lover". June, You are a fine girl! I hope you will always stay that way. May you succeed in everything you undertake and do. Have the best of luck always.

Love lots,

"Kat"
